Three Volunteer Board of Director Positions Available

York West Active Living Centre (YWALC) is a community based resource centre for persons 55 years of age and older residing in the City of Toronto. YWALC's mission is to promote, encourage and support healthy, independent living through a wide range of health and wellness programs, educational workshops and multicultural activities.

YWALC understands the importance of an active, healthy lifestyle and therefore we strive to maintain a wide range of leisure, fitness, educational, health and wellness programs that work for our members. Our membership and activities reflect the diverse population of our community and we enthusiastically accept the challenge of bringing forward new and exciting programs to meet the needs of all our members

Our Centre is a member based organization with leadership provided by a twelve member Board of Directors, all of whom are volunteers and members of the Centre.

YWALC is currently looking to fill three vacant positions. Positions to be filled include the following skill sets:

- Legal
- Research
- Contract negotiation
- Fundraising

The term would begin October 22, 2021 and end October, 2023 at which time there is potential for re-election for an additional two year term.

We ask all interested applicants to send a current CV to info@ywalc.ca on or before October 1, 2021. For additional information or inquires please visit our website at www.ywalc.ca or email us at info@ywalc.ca.
